Shifts Toward Inclusive Housing

National Thinking

- Olmstead Decision (1999)
- HCBS Final Rule

North Carolina Developments

- TCLI Settlement (Ongoing, Specific to people with MI in Adult Care Homes)
- Supported Living (Innovations Waiver Service Definition)

Future of Housing for People with Disabilities:

- Congregate care reserved for those with most intense needs, or a personal desire for communal living
- Unique plans incorporating affordable housing and individualized services

Shared Living

Roommate Matching

Planned 2-bedroom apartment – each resident rents out bedroom and shares common area in a non-licensed home with a property manager to assist with roommate relations.

Typically, residents have their own bedrooms and individual services.

Supported Apartments

Independent apartment units targeted specifically for persons with disabilities.

These are not licensed facilities and only have drop-in staff.

Tenant usually pays 30% of income.

Owned/operated by private agencies.

Scattered Site Apartments

Unit is within a typical apartment complex.

Could be in an affordable housing complex (rents set at specific income levels).

Could also be in private market with a Housing Choice Voucher that the individual can use to make that unit more affordable.

Supports are brought in specifically for that individual.

Making Housing Affordable

According to the Department of Housing and Urban Development, housing is affordable at 30% of an individual's income.

$773 = Avg. rent statewide for a 1 BR unit*

$262 = 30% of SSI ($794/month)

Rental subsidies in affordable housing are designed to bridge the gap between income and rent for individuals with limited income.

*National Low Income Housing Coalition, Out of Reach 2020

Types of Rental Subsidies

North Carolina Key Subsidies

Subsidy stays with the unit

Rent is 30% of resident's income

Must be referred by a NC designated referral agency.

Project Based Housing Subsidies

Subsidy stays with the unit

Rent is either 30% of resident's income or are set according to certain income levels.

Apply at each individual affordable housing property – nchousingsearch.org
